Valuable Family Medicines.

JUST received direct from the proprietors, the following valuable Medicines, all of which have been in use for a number of years past, in almost every part of the United States; have been highly patronised by people of the first respectability; and approved by those who have had occasion to make use of them, for the cure of those disorders, for which they are severally calculated.

Dr. Lee's Genuine (Windham) Bilious Pills,

Universally known and used throughout the United States as a Family Medicine. The fame of these pills has become so great that many have attempted to counterfeit them—to guard against this, the proprietors have procured a Stereotype Label, and each box of Genuine Lee's Pills will hereafter be enclosed in one of these labels, with these words on the sides; "Lee's Genuine Windham Billious Pills," and on the end of the Label the words, "Samuel Lee, patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said Label on them, the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Dr. Thompson's Celebrated Eye-Water:

For the cure of inflamed and sore eyes of almost every description. This valuable preparation comes highly recommended from the most respectable sources. Price 50 and 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Rawson's Genuine Itch Ointment:

A certain and safe cure for that disagreeable complaint, as well as other irruptions of the skin. Price 37½ cents a box.

PURCHASED BY
Oct 4 LAWRASON & FOWLE.

Mr. Editor,

KNOWING that there is a number of the most worthless of society, who make it a business to spread evil reports respecting the solvency of banks in the different parts of the United States, for the purpose of depreciating and purchasing their paper. I feel it is my duty to give a list of the Banks of the District of Columbia, that it may be made known to all persons in every part of the Union, that the said Banks do pay specie for their notes, on demand, and that they are justly entitled to the highest credit and standing, and that they are opposed to a suspension of specie payments, and will be the last in the country that will agree to such a measure. This communication is made to prevent imposition, and to inform all persons who may have the paper of those banks, in any part of the Union, that they may hold it as so much specie. Persons emigrating and travelling north, south or west, would do well by taking the notes of those banks, as they will always find them equal to specie, and often to command a premium of 5 to 10 per cent. for remittances to Baltimore, Philadelphia & New-York. To my numerous acquaintances (trading men,) and the community, I pledge myself for the foregoing.

The following are the banks of this district that pay specie for their notes on demand, viz:
The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown,
Central Bank of Georgetown & Washington,
Union Bank of Georgetown.
Bank of Columbia,
Bank of the Metropolis,
Patriotic Bank of Washington,
Bank of Washington,
Bank of Alexandria,
Union Bank of Alexandria,
Farmers' Bank of Alexandria,
Bank of Potomac,
Branch Bank of the United States at Washington.

I hold myself responsible for the foregoing declaration to the public. Done at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown, this 26th day of May, 1819.

Editors of newspapers throughout the United States, by giving the above a few insertions, will greatly benefit the community. R. R.

GAZETTE
AND
Alexandria Daily Advertiser.

PUBLISHED BY
SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.

Daily Gazette, 7 dolls...Country, 5 dolls.

FRIDAY, JUNE 4, 1819.

FOR THE GAZETTE.

On Tuesday the 1st inst. the young gentlemen belonging to the College at Georgetown, paid a visit to Mount Vernon on board the Union Steam Boat—and on their return stopped at Fort Washington, when Master Wells, one of the company, delivered in presence af the officers of the garrison, the following Impromptu, written on board the Steam Boat.

Ye brave asserters of Columbia's cause,
Ye shields of freedom and of freedom's laws,
No adulations shall my muse rebearse,
She'll pay no tribute in dissembled verse.
The soldier's worth demands her grateful praise, [lays;
The soldier's worth shall have her warmest
His country's honor and the nations pride,
When foreign foes swim thro' the foaming tide.
To banish freedom from this chosen earth;
O then we know and feel the soldier's worth; [breast,
His innate greatness beats within his
He flies from home and all the joys of rest, [field,
He leaps transported mid the war'ring
He fights, he conquers, makes the Britain yield, [asunder,
Then thou great Fort, shall tear their fleets
Whilst round them roars your animating thunder,
Shall whelm them neath Potomack's silver tide,
And freedom's flag shall o'er the Lion ride.
But may'st thou never cool, again defile
The patriot's zeal and honest soldiers toil,
But by the greatness of thy future fame,
Wipe off the stain that fill'd thee once with shame!
Yes, view yon seat, where rests our country's sire,
And blaze anew with patriotic fire;
Oh! ope your gates to ev'ry coming gale, [exhale,
That wafts the sweets which Vernon shades
Its fervid dews shall thro' your bosom roll,
And pour the soldier's valor in your soul;
When war's polluted banner is unfurl'd,
Your praise shall ring thro' great Columbia's world;
Yes, from the east unto the setting sun,
All tongues shall sing the great Fort WASHINGTON. T. M.

Mr. SNOWDEN,

It appears very evident that my old acquaintance, Johnny Gladden, has violated his parole of honor, by attempting to disseminate false views of the case, and must be sentenced by Rhadamanthus to a protracted term in the "recesses of condemned spirits." I am not surprised that the gentleman whom he represents to be a man of understanding, was not convinced by his logical powers. It is difficult to convince a man that he should divest himself of his legal rights—it is a point on which men are certain to be obstinate. It is also difficult to persuade persons to abandon arbitrary and illegal practises; or surely none could have the hardihood to assert that staking and floating gill nets is not obstructing the passage of shad up the river; or, in the words of the compact between the states of Virginia and Maryland, exercising the right to the hindrance and disturbance of the shores of both the states. It is a fact, that ten small vessels only had ten thousand fathoms of gill nets taked opposite the Indian Head—more than double the number of fathoms of all the seines of Maryland and Virginia united—from that point to Alexandria each vessel had thirty nets, from thirty to sixty fathoms long; three years ago there were forty of these vessels fishing in the Potomac. In my days this would not have been permitted: self-preservation, which consists in protecting our property as well as persons, is a law which every man understands, though he never read Blackstone or my Lord Coke: I hope there is no degeneracy in the present times; the evil is rapidly growing; the marauders multiply every year, and are beginning to pursue the fish along the coast and up the Chesapeake bay: it requires not much sagacity to predict, that, unless they are expressly forbidden by the legislatures, and promptly punished by the most summary process, the fisheries will be ruined, the community exasperated, and discord will ensue. The fishermen and farmers of Virginia and Maryland have respectfully, and even submissively, approached the legislatures on the subject, and their grievances have not been redressed. I repeat, self-preservation is a plain law, and they should repel the plunderers of their property, as they would the violaters of their persons.

If the river is free for all, then the fishermen have the right to fire cannon balls in any direction, and the gill-net-men to place secret impediments (which they have done) in the seine births, to the entire ruin of fishermen, and to stake and float their nets, to the hindrance of the passage of fish.—This view alone, shows the absurdity of the idea. It is free for specified purposes only. It is free for navigation & commerce; and it is free to the owners and occupiers of the shores to take fish opposite their landings. The sixth and seventh articles of the compact between the states of Virginia and Maryland clearly illustrate this:—Art. 6. The river Potomac shall be considered as a common highway for the purpose of navigation and commerce to the citizens of Virginia and Maryland, and if the United States, &c. Thus the purposes for which the river shall be free are plainly pointed out. Art. 7th. The citizens of each state respectively shall have full property in the shores of the Potomac river, with the emoluments and advantages thereto belonging. But the right of fishing in the river shall be common to, and equally enjoyed, by the citizens of both states; provided that such common right be not exercised by the citizens of one state to the hindrance or disturbance of the fisheries of the shores of the other state." What can be more explicit than these words? they are as clear as noon day sunshine. Who now shall say that ten thousand fathoms of gill nets, staked at a narrow passage in the river, is not fishing to the hindrance, disturbance and ruin of the shores of Maryland and Virginia?—The logic of your correspondent is equally incorrect with respect to licenses. They are issued under the authority of the laws of the United States, and refer solely to the taking and curing fish on the Grand Bank and coast of Newfoundland. Unless state sovereignties are destroyed, the U. States can grant no licenses to vessels to fish within the jurisdiction of any of the states.—Many of the eastern states prohibit their own citizens fishing after particular seasons. Can then a vessel under her license fish in violation of a state regulation?—certainly not. It is also of material consequence to the inhabitants of Virginia and Maryland, and the citizens of the district of Columbia, who take the shad. It is of material consequence to the manufacturers and importers of twine, cordage, tar and salt; to laborers, coopers, ship carpenters; to farmers, and to the poor. When caught by those piccaroons, the gill-net-men, they are transported to a distance from our shores, perhaps to Boston or New-Orleans; when by seine owners, this blessing of providence is distributed among the industrious population of our agricultural country, in exchange for the productions of their labor, thus creating a reciprocity of benefit, which in the other event we are entirely deprived of. It is no proof of the abundance of shad that they sold low; that, with greater justness, may be traced to another source, the great and unusual pressure of the times, growing out of the rag establishments which infest the country, and that mammoth of iniquity, the national bank.

The citizens of Maryland once claimed the right of fishing on the Virginia shores of the Potomac; Johnny Gladden attempted it, and I made a ghost of him, which opened the eyes of the states of Maryland and Virginia, and induced them to form and ratify the compact of 1786. If I can infuse my spirit into the fishermen of the present day, more ghosts shall vanish into airy nothing, and the states aforesaid regret they did not protect the property of their citizens, and prevent the effusion of blood. CAPTAIN POSEY'S GHOST.

From the Baltimore Federal Republican. of June 1.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the ship Mohawk, Capt. Birch, in 34 days from Liverpool, we have been politely favored by Hugh Boyle, Esq. owner, the captain, and commercial friends, with regular London and Liverpool files to the 24th April, inclusive. The principal articles we give a hasty sketch of. There is nothing important.

London, April, 16.

Yesterday was settling day at the Stock Exchange. Notwithstanding the recent fluctuations in the Funds, we have not heard of any defaulter having been declared on this occasion.

The first part of an expedition under col. Eyer, and destined to join Sir Gregor M'Gregor, in S. America, sailed on Friday from the port of Dublin. Vessels are now on their way from England to Galway, to receive another part of Col. Eyre's corps, ready to embark at that port, and another vessel will be immediately taken up at Dublin, for a similar purpose.

It is with much pleasure we learn, from various parts of the country, that their is every appearance of an abundant harvest this year. The wheats in most places are well forward, and generally speaking, too much advanced to be much injured by any of those sharp night frosts which may happen during this and the ensuing month. In the counties of Kent, Surrey, and Sussex, the corn already has a luxuriant appearance and the straw is uncommonly strong and large. In fruits and vegetables, the prospect is equally cheering, owing to the genial mildness of the season. Potatoes that most important article of wholesome and nutricious food to the laboring classes, are expected to turn up much better than they did last year. We hope, most sincerely, that all these joyful promises of plenty will be fully realized.

Letters are received from Cadiz up to the 25th ult. If there be any truth in the report which was mentioned in a Morning Paper of yesterday, as to a mutiny among the troops embarking for South America, the affair is kept very secret. The letters state there was no news, and that every thing remains tranquil. The advices from Madrid were to the 4th inst. they contain no political news of any interest.

We are sorry to state, that very unpleasant intelligence respecting the plague in Barbary was yesterday received. The letters were dated the 17th of March, at which time the plague, which had been decreasing for some months, had returned with redoubled fury.—The deaths were greater than had been experienced during the last fatal year. The inhabitants were neglecting all their usual avocations, and were shutting themselves up in their huts.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York has by a fall, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, broken the bone of his right arm three inches above the elbow joint. The fracture was set very soon after by Mr. O'Reilly, of Windsor. His Royal Highness has passed a quiet night, and is this morning free from fever, and doing in all respects as well as under the circumstances can be expected.

April 17.

The Paris papers of Tuesday have arrived: the contents of which, however, do not call for any very earnest notice. The fifth anniversary of Monsieur's entrance into the French capital, April 12, was observed at the Thuileries by the National Guard who took the household service from the Garde d' Artois, and were entertained at a banquet by his Royal Highness, who stated, that although he had laid by the uniform of the Parisian legions, he would be ready to resume it in the hour of danger.

It appears from a Manheim article, that Kotzebue's murderer was still alive on the 6th inst. when a strong and natural anxiety prevailed to get from him some useful information. The recovery of this assassin was, however declared by the medical men to be altogether impossible.

The Hamburgh and Dutch mails have brought intelligence of some serious quarrels having taken place at Brussels, between the different regiments composing that garrison. The city was not tranquillized before some wounds had been exchanged, and a party of turbulent hussars unceremoniously committed to the watch-house.

The Stocks experienced a further depression yesterday. Consols leaving off at 72¼, two defaulters were declared, but not to a large amount, the understanding as to a new Loan being in contemplation, must of course tend to lower the funds. The expected amount of it is variously estimated: some reports stating it at £16,000,000 whilst others extend it at £25,000,000.

Commerce continues in a most distressing state of stagnation. Two houses in the city connected with the Manchester trade have stopped payment, one of which is stated to have paper out to the amount of £250,000.

"Rumors upon rumors continue as to the ways and means and supply of the year.—Consols which fluctuated yesterday from 73¼ to 72¼, left off at 73. This morning they opened at 72 7-8, and are now at 72 7-8. Loans and funding are still insisted upon by the buyers, who have even fixed the definite sum for each—fifteen millions loan and ten millions funding. The house of Rothschild are even preparing lists for the Loan."

Upon the above Stock Exchange rumors we must beg that our silence may not be construed, as some of our cotemporaries have done, into an admission of the correctness of them. We know nothing as yet of the intentions of government, and we must naturally suppose that much will depend upon the opinions and report of the bank committee.——The Budget will not be brought forward till after that report is presented and taken into consideration.

The Paris papers of Wednesday last arrived this morning. They contain no news of any particular interest, if we except a private letter from Cadiz, relating to the actual condition of South American affairs.

The Persian Ambassador has had an audience of leave of his majesty Louis XVIII.

Paris papers to the 14th inst. have arrived. Among our extracts will be found the amendments proposed to the law relative to the liberty of the Press. They refer chiefly to the gradation of punishments and we confess we augur little or no good to France from the proposed measure.—When the government is entrusted to a set of men who have not the confidence of the people, and who maintain themselves in office in defiance of the public opinion, all those measures which they devise relative to the press must be framed with a view to its absolute restriction—to place it under their own complete control, and thus effectually to prevent all fredom of political discussion.

London Corn Exchange, April 19.

Although the supply of English wheat was very small this morning, yet sales were exceedingly heavy, and only prime samples obtained last Monday's prices. All other descriptions may be considered 2s per quarter lower. What little English barley appeared to-day, sold 1s per quarter higher than last week, but the demand continues very trifling, and the inferior qualities unsaleable. Oats were heavy sale, and rather cheaper, the arrivals both of English and foreign far exceeding the demand. In beans and pease scarce any thing doing, and prices nominal.

April 20.

Stocks.—We have to notice again to-day a still further decline of the funds, notwithstanding the depression which has continued for so considerable a length of time.—Consols for the account at one time in the day fell to 71 5-8, owing to the uncertainty as to the intention of the Chancellor of the Exchequer with respect to raising money, and the market closed at the following prices:—

Red Ann. 71¼—Consols 72—Ditto for Account 72 1-8.

Liverpool, April 23.

CASH PAYMENTS.

The Liverpool Courier contains the following cheering intelligence, which we transcribe to gladden the hearts of those whose faith may be a little more lively than our own upon the subject:—

"A fact of great public importance was stated on Wednesday week by Lord Harrowby. It is this, that the bank is at present in possession of treasure fully equal to the discharge of its engagements."

To this pleasing intelligence we most fervently say—Amen!

Sir Francis Burditt has been confined to his room during the last fortnight by a severe attack of the gout. The statement of this fact becomes necessary, in order to refute the calumnies which have been so sedulously and maliciously circulated relative to his absence from his duty in parliament, especially on the motion of lord A. Hamilton for Burgh reform, and during the latter parts of the discussion on the bills for taking away the right of appeal. His illness, however, fortunately, for his country, did not take place until he had, in a strain of masterly eloquence, grounded on a stock of profound legal knowledge, thoroughly exposed the wickedness of this low and despicable stratagem, to filch from the people one of the most valuable of their birth-rights, under the pretence of abolishing only a barbarous and needless appendage to it, and displayed the consumate folly, presumption, and ignorance of its authors. He stamped on them at once contempt and infamy—on no occasion did he ever acquit himself more ably or successfully than on that—by no act did he ever more deservedly endear himself to his countrymen.—Statesman.

Major General D'Evereux, of the Patriot armies of Venezuela and New Grenada, has sailed for England, with part of his staff, on business connected with the important service in which he is engaged, and upon which he has already conferred so many valuable benefits. We are authorized to state that the General has delegated Mathew Sutton, esq. and invested him with full power to act his representative during his absence from this country. in all matters relating to his legion, and to that portion of South American affairs with which the general is immediately connected.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Gen. D'Evereux's Legion.

The organization of the first division of this fine corps is nearly complete. It is almost wholly composed of veteran soldiers, of the first class, and a number of officers who have seen service. In consequence of the high character of the general, and the popularity he so deservedly enjoys among his countrymen, hundreds daily offer themselves for admission to this legion, which promises to be one of the most splendid and efficient corps in the Venezuelian service.

Liverpool Corn Exchange, Tuesday, April 20.

From the granaries of Ireland we continue to be liberally supplied with wheat and oats, and the continent pours in upon us her redundancy of wheat, barley, and beans, these, coupled with the present paralized state of business in general, and the frequent recourse to force sales by suction, depress the market, which although throngly attended by country dealers to day, further declined 3d per bushel for wheat, and 1d for oats from last quotations. Wheat was generally neglected, but oats were bought more freely than for some time past. Barley and malt were also 6d lower—the former was in fair request, but the latter dull in the extreme. Beans are again 2s to 4s per quarter, and flour and oatmeal, 1s to 2s per pack lower.

Import of grain for the week ending April 19.

Wheat, bushel, 70 lbs 30680—barley, bushel, 69 lbs 21060—oats, bushel, 49 lbs 51060.

Paris, April 13.

The following are the only Journals now permitted to enter Spain: The Moniteur, the Gazette de France, the Journal de Paris, the Journal des Debats, and the Quotidienne. The English papers and those of the Netherlands, are strictly forbidden.

The assassination of M. de Kotzebue will probably be followed by consequences not foreseen by the infuriated wretches who armed the hand of young Sandt.

M. de Struve, the Russian Minister at the court of the Grand Duchy of Baden, proceeded to Manheim on the 2d inst. personally to collect all the details of this deplorable event, and at the same time to cause to be delivered to him all the papers that might be found in the portfolio of M de Kotzebue, in his quality of private secretary to the Emperor Alexander.

Notwithstanding the obstinate denials of Sandt, it appears more and more established that he had accomplices. An innkeeper at Weimbergh has deposed, that when Sandt lodged at his house, he was accompanied by another young man. Other persons have given evidence to the same effect—but the Unknown disappeared at the Town-gate of Manheim, leaving to his fanatic comrade all the perils of the blow fate had consigned to his execution.

Our private correspondent from Italy, observes the journal des debates, does not speak of any arrest, and affords no new motive for believing the reality of a conspiracy against his majesty the Emperor of Austria. The journals of Florence, Genoa and Milan do not notice any disquieting circumstance.

French funds, April 12.—Five per cents 67f. 45c. Bank stock, 1540f.

Hanover, April 3.

The assembly of the states is near to its dissolution. In the sitting of to-day was read a communication from the Prince Regent, of the 5th of January last, in which his Royal Highness declares his views with respect to the future General Assembly of the states, and requires the opinion of the assembly. In this communication his royal highness says, "that it is not the plan to make great changes in the constitution, according to which the states have the right to grant taxes, and to share in the legislation—partly because experience has shewn the utility of this ancient constitution of the country, and partly because constitutions introduced upon merely theoretical principles will never be so advantageous as those which have been gradually formed according to the wants of the state."

Charleston, May 27.

On board the ship Thalia, which sailed from this port yesterday for Liverpool, were eight Indian Chiefs of the Southern tribes destined to divert John Bull from his pugilistic exercises to the equally useful and intersting exhibition of bear dances and Indian yells. We may expect, soon after the exhibition of these children of nature to see a treatise in some English print on the progress of musical science and the polite arts in this country.

THE CIRCASSIAN LADY.

The Gazette de France contradicts the ungallant observations of the other Paris papers, as to the beauty of this fair stranger who has been brought to Europe by the Persian ambassador. It describes her as possessing a very white skin and cheerful temper. Her beauty, says the Journal, appears to be, according to the accounts we have received, of a nature to be prized among all people, who think that beauty consists in the perfect harmony of features, and the exactness of proportions. Large black eyes, long black hair, a slender youthful figure, are advantages with which no one can be deemed ugly in France. But still she assuredly must excite a strong interest among us. A slave, without any family, without a country, her life, in our capital, as every where else, is passed in the most profound seclusion. Exiled to her chamber, inaccessable to all the world, she does not even appear at her window, without being covered with a large veil, and she is not relieved from this restraint except when her master is out with his people. She then walks about in her apartment without meeting any one save the females of the hotel, or the two persons charged to watch her. If she chance to meet the females, she becomes quite joyous with spirits—she plays with them—romps with them—caresses them; but on the least noise she disappears, and shuts herself up in her cabinet. Some ladies, among them Lady Somerset, solicited the Ambassador to permit the interesting stranger to pass an evening at their houses; but their entreaties were all to no purpose.

ESCAPE FROM PRISON.

Samuel Smith, Michael McFarren, John Carter, David Powers, John Jinny, and William Freeman, who had been some time confined in the Savannah gaol, on a charge of piracy, made their escape on Friday night last, by cutting their way through the wall and lowering themselves down by pieces of blankets tied together. Eight others remained in the room who had not time to make their escape. The discovery was not made until after day light.

Married,

On Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Norris, THOMAS W. HEWETT, esq. of this town, to Miss MARGARET B. SMITH, daughter of Dr. Augustine J. Smith, of West Grove.

Bulletin.

To all whom it may concern these PRESENTS come greeting:

WHEREAS one of the brokers of George town, has, in the plenitude of assumption, issued a kind of mock manifesto, designating by his dictum, those banks in the District of Columbia which pay specie for their notes: and, like another Atlas, has taken on his shoulders the burden of their responsibility.

And whereas the aforesaid personage has, without conferring with the banks in Alexandria, "considered it his duty" to pronounce on them his opinion: and in so doing has either wilfully or ignorantly excluded the Mechanics' Bank from his list of "banks paying specie"

Now these are to certify, (the aforesaid Broker's proclamation notwithstanding,) that, in addition to the Alexandria, Potomac, Farmers' and Union Banks, (which have, under the most severe pressure from the brokers on the other side, invariably and constantly retired their notes by drafts on the NORTH, or with specie) that the Mechanics' Bank has resumed specie payment.

"We hold ourselves responsible for the above declaration to the public.

Done and perfected at our office, corner of Prince and Fairfax streets, this second day of June, Anno Domini 1819, and in the first era of our vocation.

Lectures

ON THE RUNNING HAND,

Price 3 dollars for seven lectures. each two hours at the Writing Room, next door to the Marshall's Offie, Washington street.

IMMEDIATELY after a former advertisement, I engaged a sufficient number of scholars, and have since refused the applications of many, because they applied too late to go through the whole course of writing on the different Hands. But to meet the wishes of many, I propose to give lectures on the Running Hand only during the remaining ten days that my engagements elsewhere permit me to continue in this place. And notwithstanding, the statement may appear extravagant and even impossible to many who know nothing about it, yet is a fact that not only in 12 or 14 hours, but even in 4 hours, I will produce a change in a person's writing from a cramped, slow, slovenly hand to an easy, free, neat running hand, entirely different from the former one. Those who please may try the experiment. Besides acquiring the running hand perfectly and permanently, each gentleman will be taught the true method of making, holding the pen, sitting at the writing desk, &c. Specimens of the running hand acquired in a few hours may be seen at the writing room.

ALSO FOR SALE, AS ABOVE,

The Self-taught Penman

Land for Sale.

I WILL sell a great bargain in a small tract of land, containing about 150 acres, more or less, lying on the Potomac river and Monroe's creek, between the two, on the north side said creek, and forming the mouth, whereon William Williams has for many years resided. This situation would be particularly convenient for any person who follows the water, the Creek forming an excellent harbor, and the neighborhood being wealthy, constant freights might be got. The land is susceptible of great improvement, and is the very best wheat land in all the neighborhood. As it is presumed any person wishing to purchase will first view the premises, a further description is thought unnecessary. For terms apply to the subscriber, near Mattox Bridge, Westmoreland county, Virginia.

Round Hill for Sale.

BY virtue of a deed of trust from Daniel McPherson and wife to me, under date of the 30th of May, 1816, and for the purposes therein prescribed, I shall sell at public auction, on the premises on THIS DAY, the 4th inst. a tract of land in the county of Fairfax, known by the name of lying on the stage or Colchester road, distant about 6 miles from Alexandria, and containing 148½ acres, more or less;—reserving, however, to George Triplett his right to one moiety of the dwelling house and yard. This land has been very considerably improved by judicious cultivation, and there are now growing crops of small grain upon it.

Also, one other tract, being an equal undivided moiety of a tract of land in the said county, contiguous to the foregoing, and supposed to contain 25 acres 2 poles.

The terms of sale will be made known at the time and place of sale.
J. L. McKENNA, Trustee.

The Mechanics' Bank having taken upon itself the payment of the above debt to the Bank of Alexandria, the sale intended to have been made on this day, will, of course not take place. It may be proper however to give notice, that the sale advertised by Wm. Veitch, trustee of the Mechanics' Bank, will take place on the 10th inst. upon the terms expressed in that advertisement.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 5,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain; being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirious of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

100 Dollars Reward.

IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

The above reward will be cheerfully paid on conviction of the perpetrators of this flagrant outrage upon the rights of a freeborn citizen of the United States.

Exchange & Broker's Office,

Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18
